

Fayette, taken all in all, is a great place "numerously." When the weather is too hot for business the show-folks take our people under their peculiar care and keep us alive in spite of ourselves. We had the New York circus with us a week since; to-day the Eagle company, with a female rider attached, enlivens us, and next week the New York corps comes back to us. If all this isn't fun on a large scale we are decidedly out of our reckoning. Every body will go to-day, and by next week, who will not have another half?

P. S. Visitors to the circus must keep a bit to buy a "watermill" at the "Galt," fresh, fine, just from the patch.

The September number of the "Ladies' Companion" is very interesting. It is embellished with two splendid engravings; a plate of fashions and a piece of music. It contains contributions from the pens of some of the most eminent writers of the day. Published by W. W. Snowden, 109 Fulton Street, New York, at $3.00 per annum.

NOTICE.—A meeting of the Whigs of Howard county will be held in the Court House in this place, on the first Monday of next month, for the purpose of appointing Delegates to the District Convention, for this District, which is to be held in Huntsville, on the 3d Monday in November next. A full attendance of the Whigs of the County is earnestly solicited.

COMMERCIAL.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 9.
Dullness, as the general characteristic of our market, remains in full force, nor can any considerable change be reasonably anticipated for some weeks. Our hopes, that the fever would not become epidemic, are not so well grounded now as they were last week; and the disease is gradually more general, and cases are beginning to occur frequently in the private practice of our established physicians. This visitation will of course prevent many of our country friends from coming to the city, and consequently retard the local trade that we enjoy in September and October during the healthy seasons.

Tobacco.—We have no new features in our tobacco market to notice. The stock on sale is daily diminishing, and is now composed almost entirely of parcels on re-sale. About 200 bbls. have changed hands during the week without alteration in price, though one superior lot was disposed of (as will be seen below) at rates above our previous quotations, which we continue, as they cover all the usual descriptions. They are: for common lots of 25, 30, 35, 40, 45, 50, 55, 60, 65, 70, 75, 80, 85, 90, 95, 100, 110, 120, 130, 140, 150, 160, 170, 180, 190, 200, 210, 220, 230, 240, 250, 260, 270, 280, 290, 300, 310, BAKING AND ROASTING.—No change, since our last statement, demand fair, for cash. Bagging 12 1/2 cts, and Rope 4 1/2 cts, and on time, Bagging 14 1/2 cts; Rope 5 1/2 cts.

Flour.—We have no change to note in this article; the sales are light, confined principally to the bakers. We quote Ohio at $4 1/2 a 4 3/4; St. Louis $4 50 a 4 75; and even as high as $5 has been paid for choice brands.

Wheat.—The demand for wheat continues limited. We quote 20c. per gallon, with a large stock on hand.

LARD.—There is very little doing in Lard; the prices range from 5c. to 6c., according to quality. Holders of prime lots ask as high as 7c. a 7 1/2c., but we hear of no sales at these prices. The stock on hand is large.

PORK.—The demand still continues small and prices much the same. We quote Mess at $11; Prime, very scarce at $10 25—holders are asking $10 50, but we can hear of no sales. M. O. $10 25; Soft Mess $10.

Bacon.—The stock is very small; we believe none in first hands. Mess $9 a 9 50; Prime $7; Mess, in first hands, $4 50 a $5.

Bacon.—We notice a decided improvement in Bacon. Sides are in fair demand at $3 1/2 a 4c.; Shoulders, scarce and in good demand at $3 1/2 a 4c.; Hams, uncanvassed, 4 a 4 1/2c.; canvassed 3 a 3 1/2c. We hear of several large lots of Bacon having been taken on speculation, and the general impression is, that there will be a still further advance.

MARRIED.—On Tuesday evening, by Eld. F. Wilhoit, TREX H. MARTIN, Esq. to Miss SUSAN E. HILL, all of this county.

[Blessed are they that remember the Printer; their days shall be many; they shall lie down in fulness, with smiles on their lips, and rise up with songs of joy in their mouths; their days shall be spent in happiness, and their nights likewise.—Printer's Proverbs.]

On the same evening, by Eld. Wm. Duncan, JAMES H. DAVIS, Esq., of Randolph county, to Miss SARAH E., daughter of Dr. John J. Lowry, of this county.

DIED.—On the 9th inst., in Charleston county, Mrs. MARY TRENT, consort of Alexander Trent, Esq., aged 41 years.

Her sufferings were great, but like Job, she bore her afflictions with patience—often calling on the Lord in whom she trusted. She had been a professor for about 20 years. She often exhorted her husband and children to be prepared to meet her in Heaven. And while her body was racked with disease, her soul was calm and happy in the anticipation of soon being able to enter into the joys of that blessed state of immortal felicity which lies beyond the tomb.
